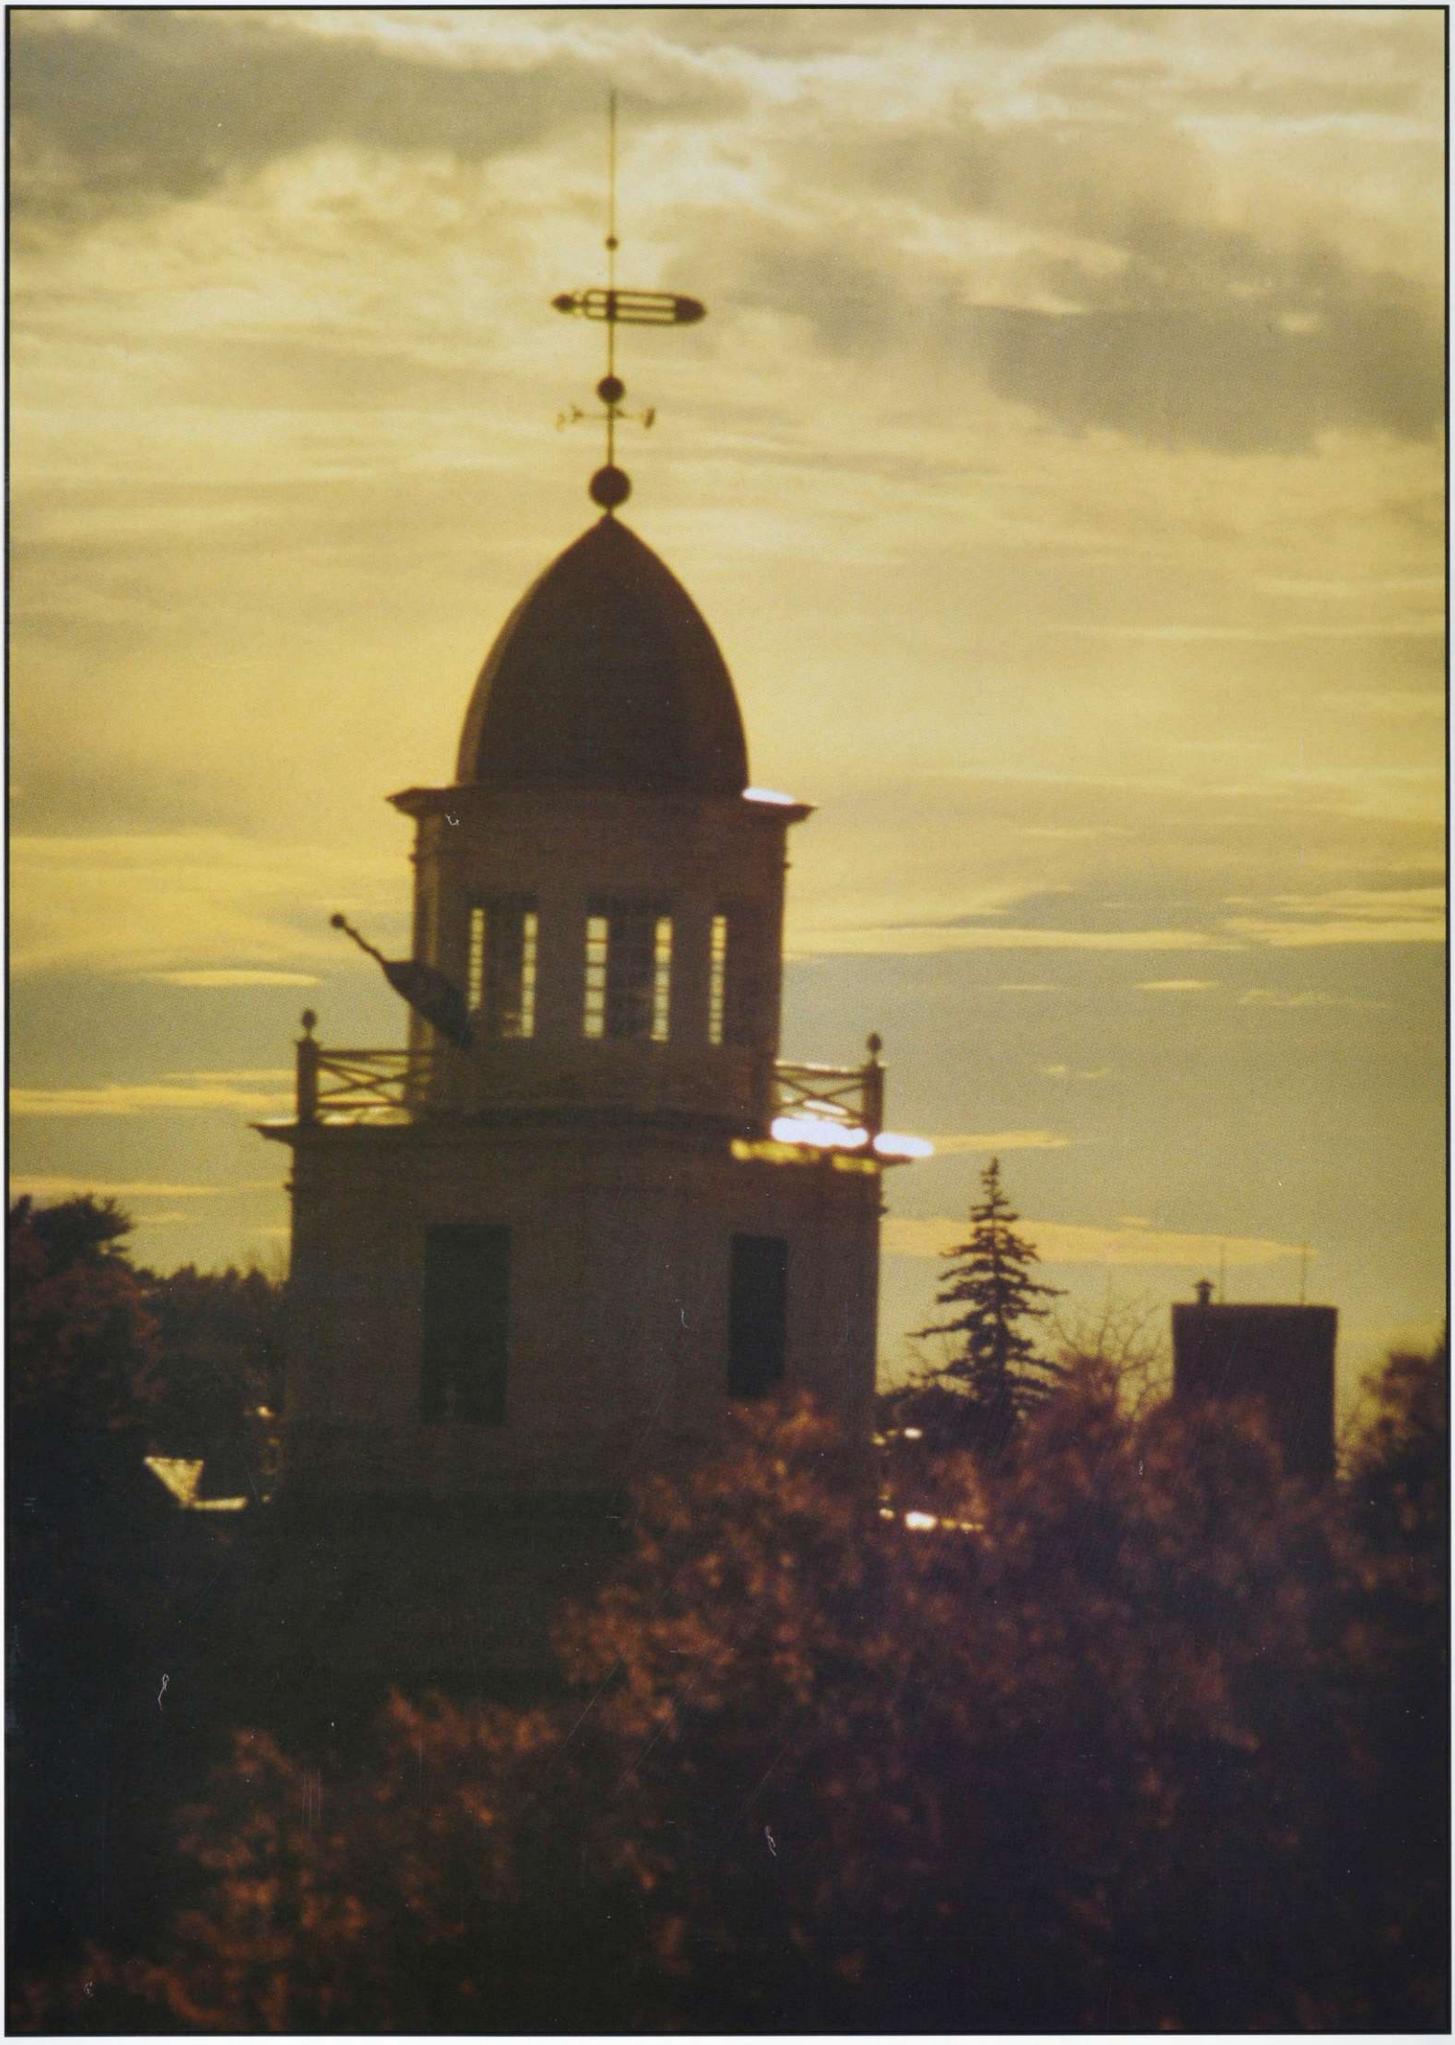
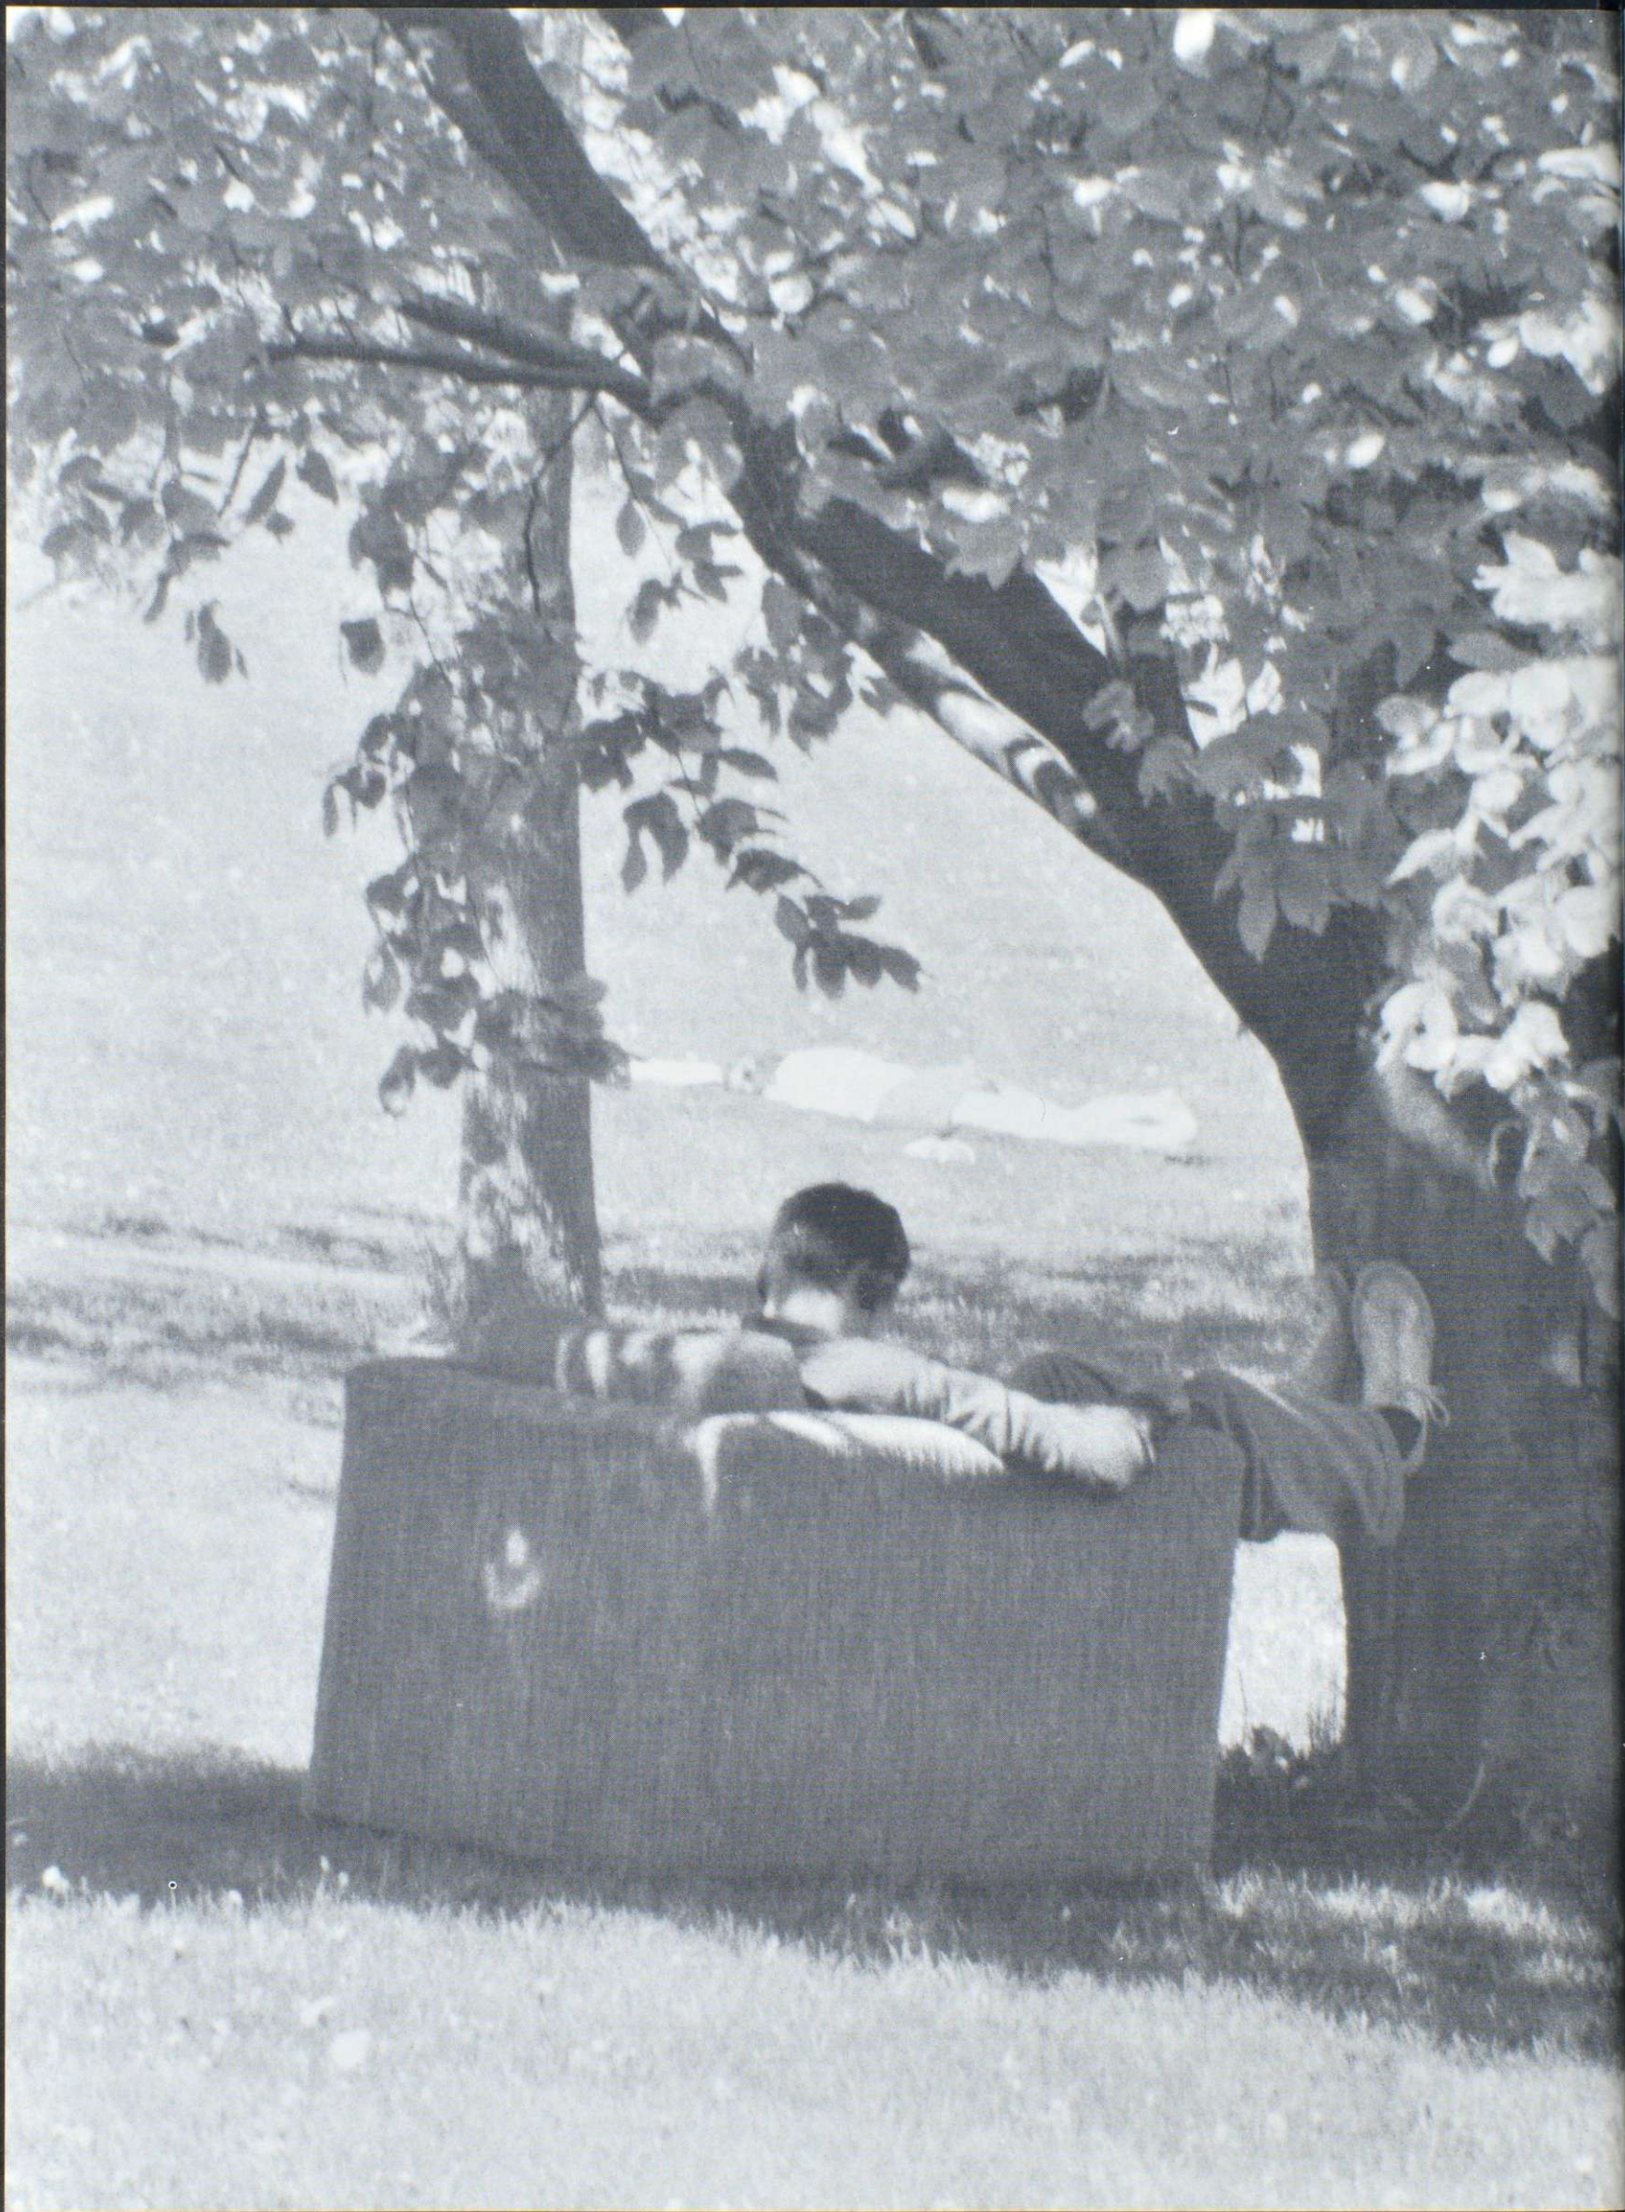
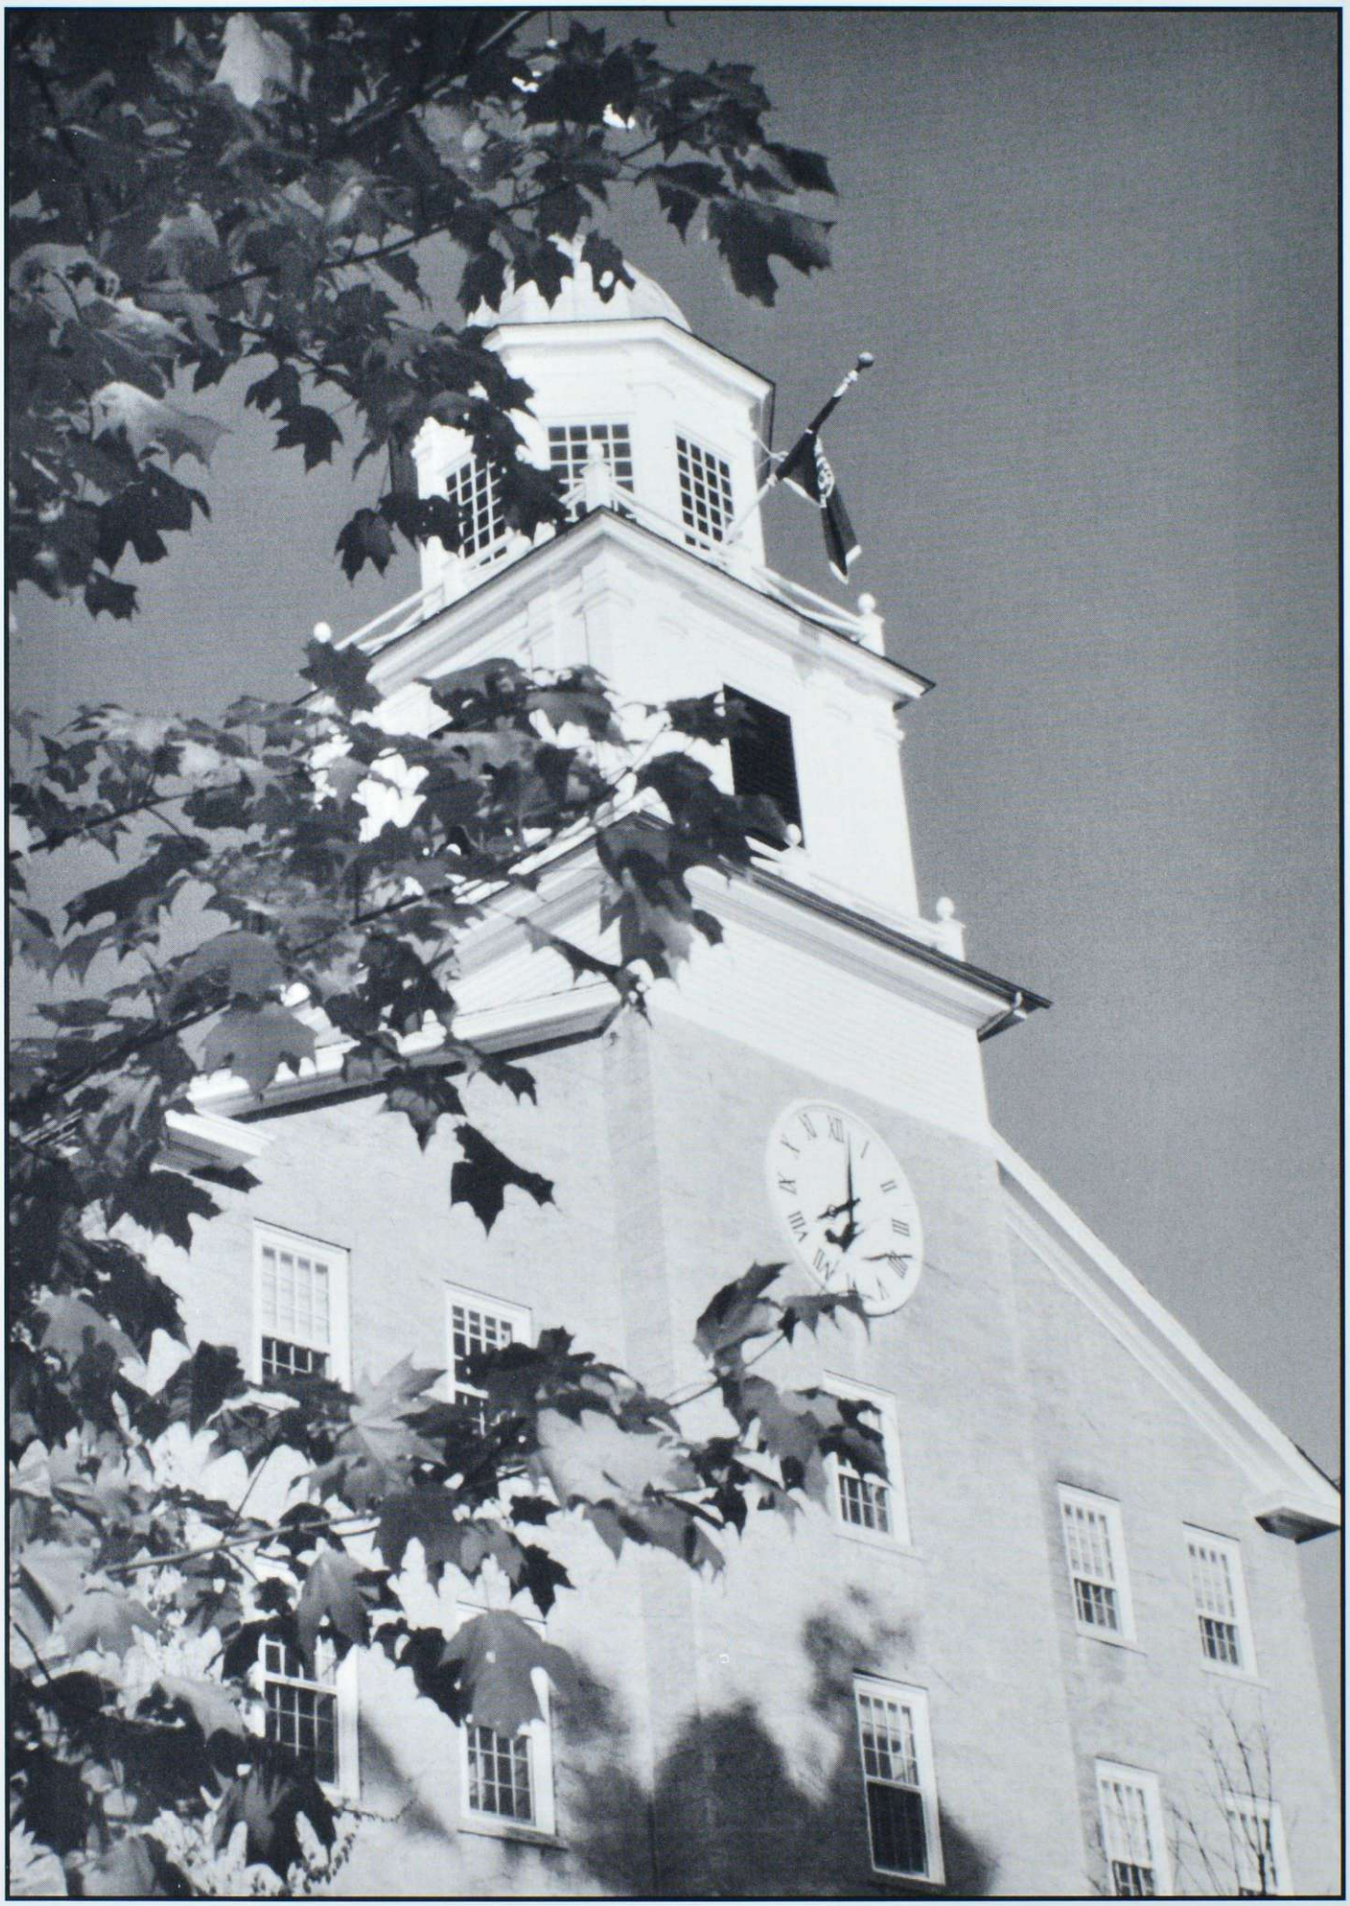
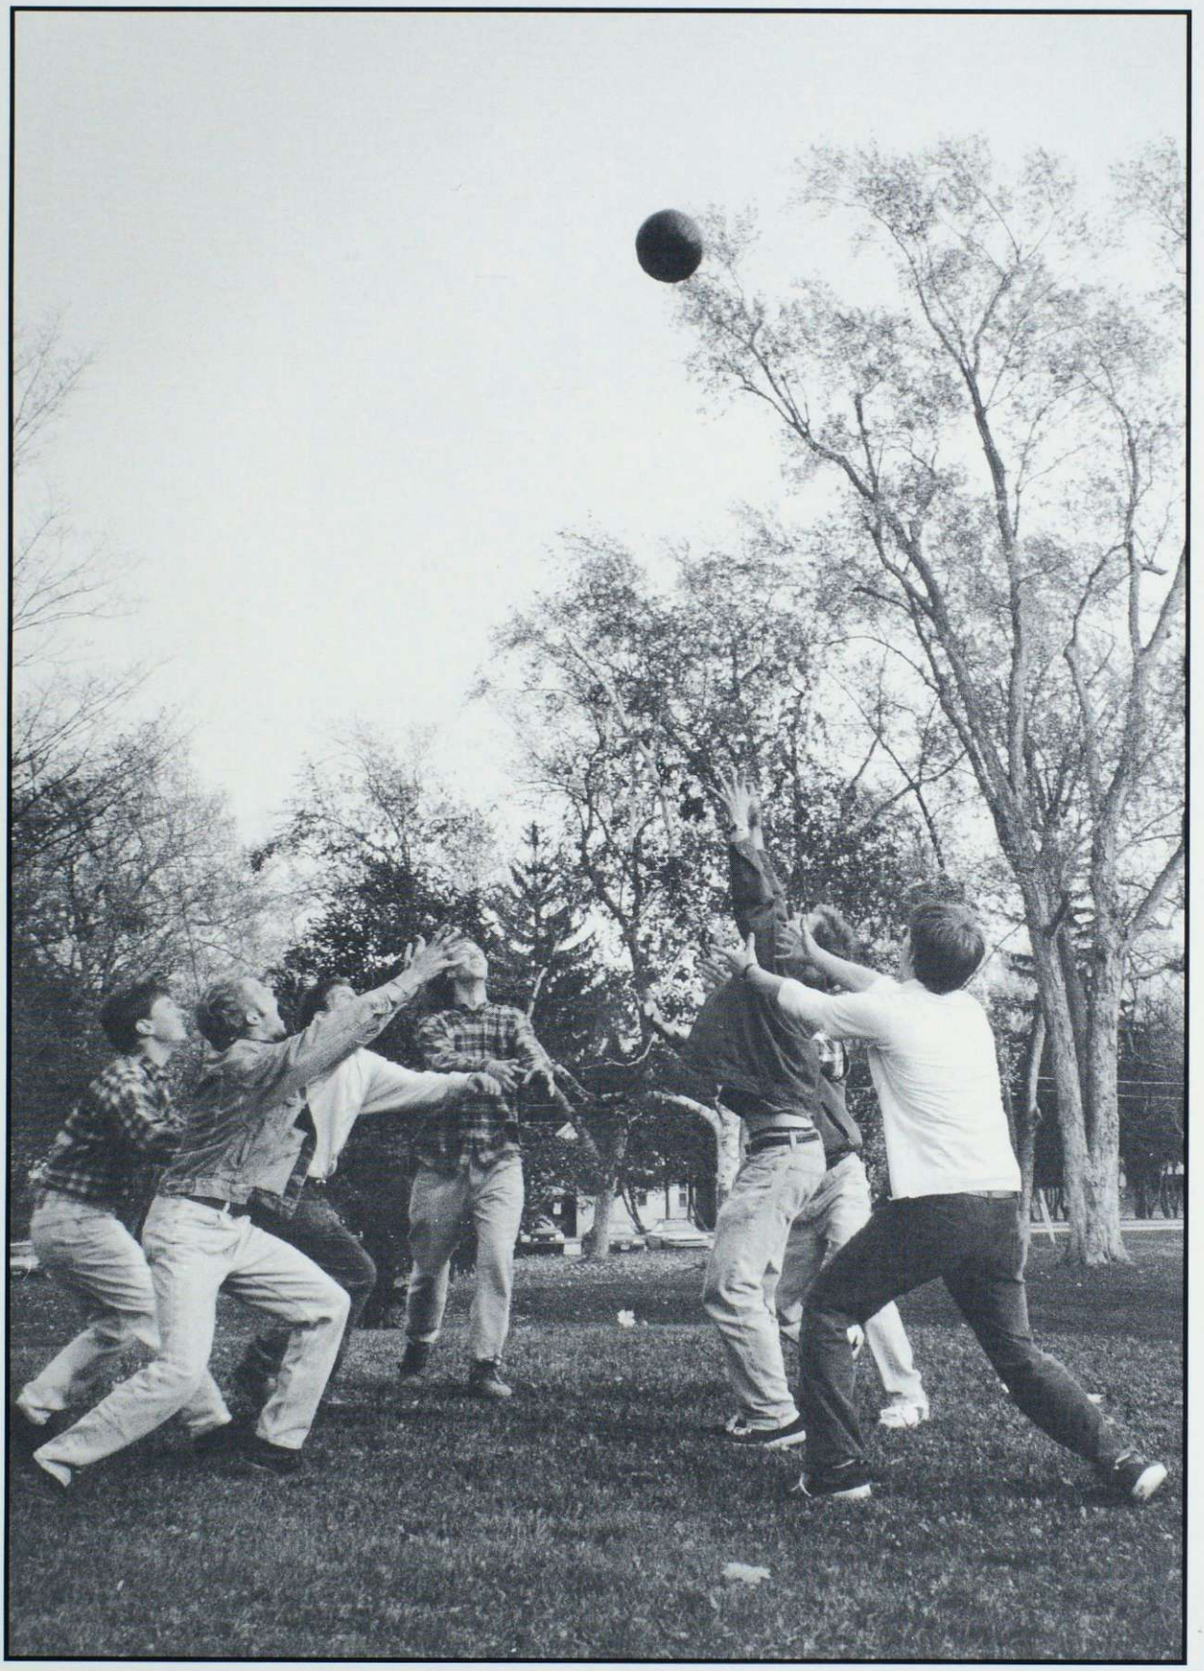
COLUMBIA • SPORTS III •





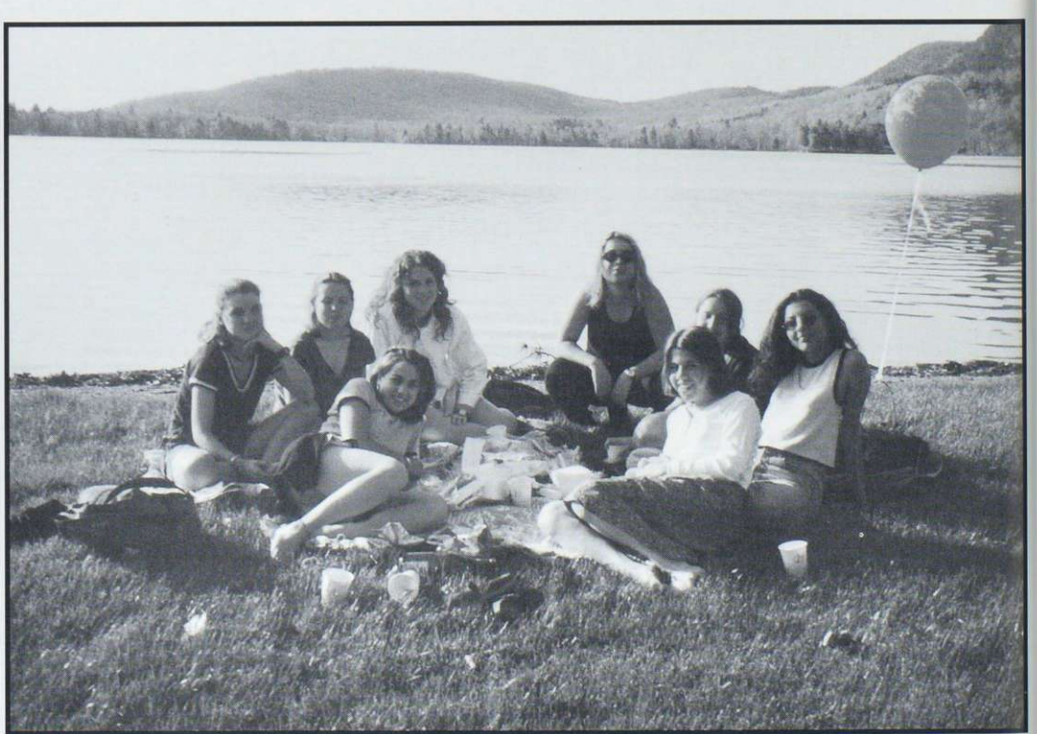
Student Life

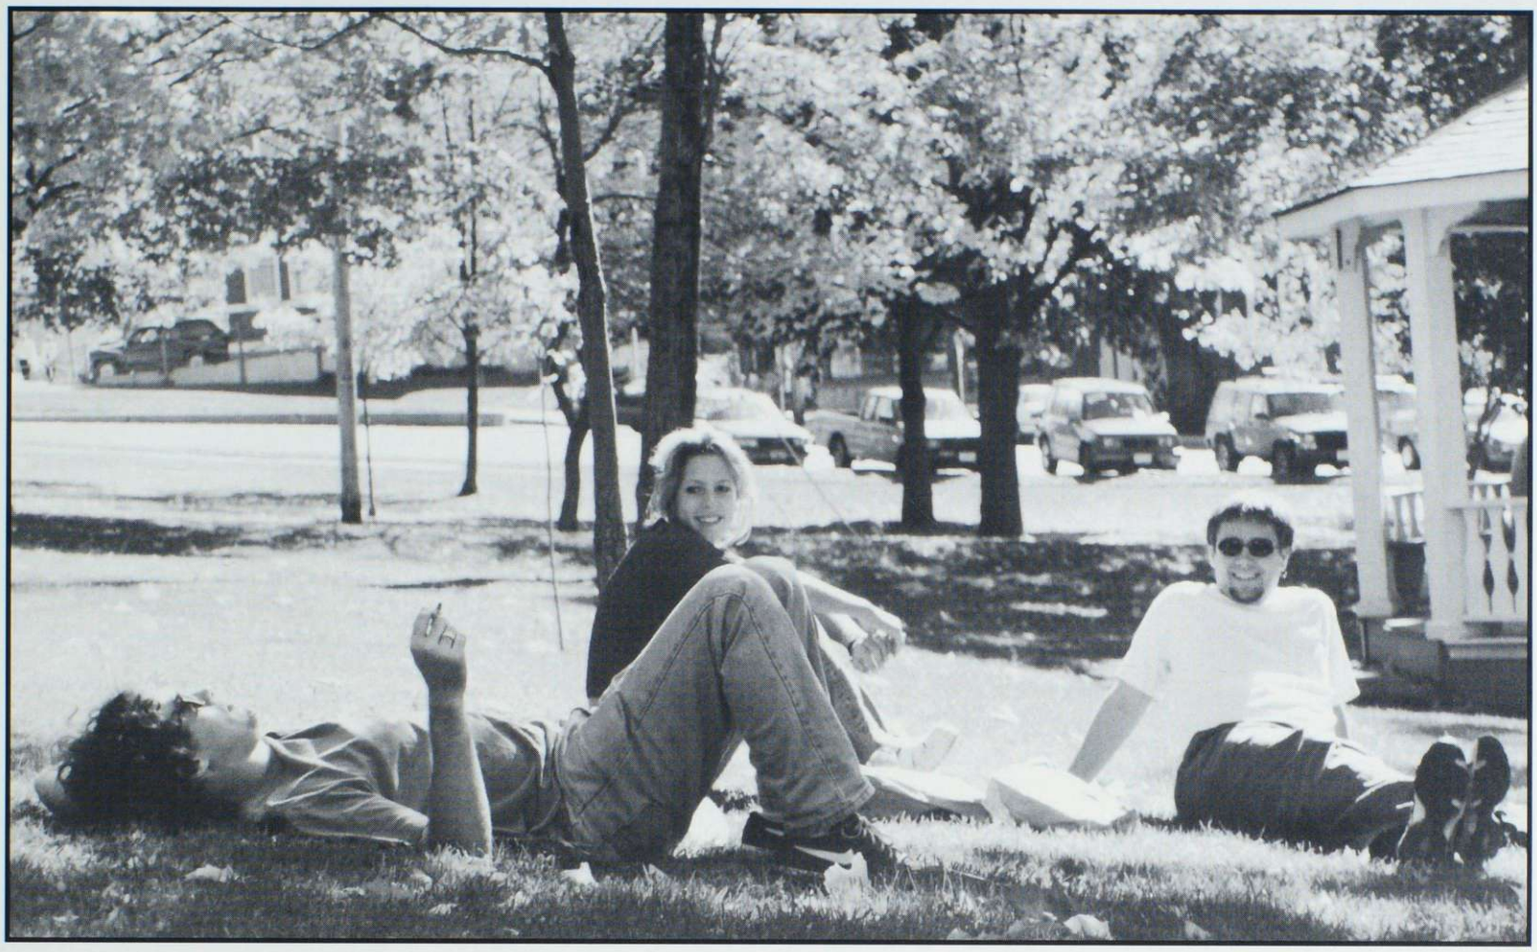




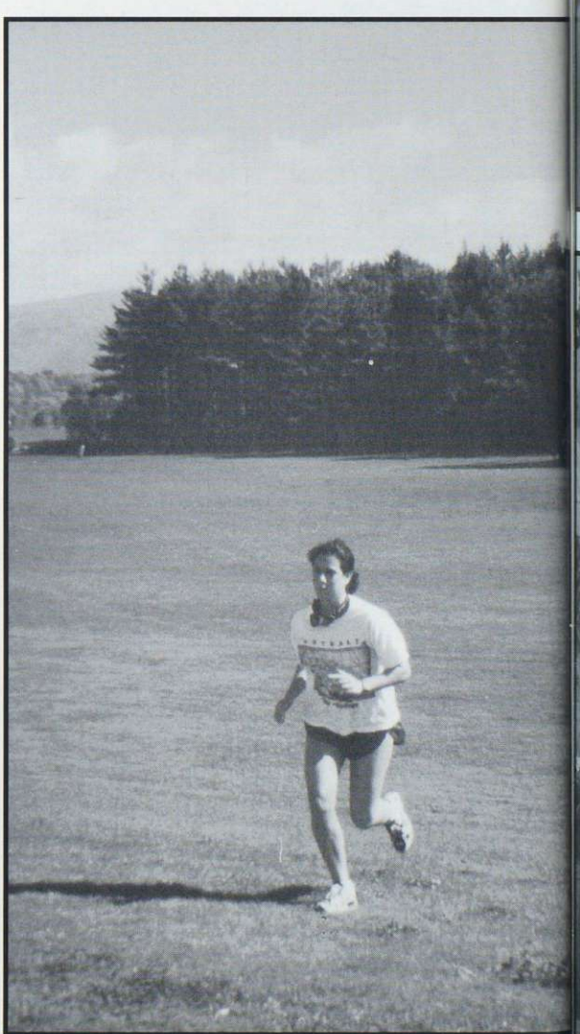
"It is only in the country that we can get to know a person or a book."

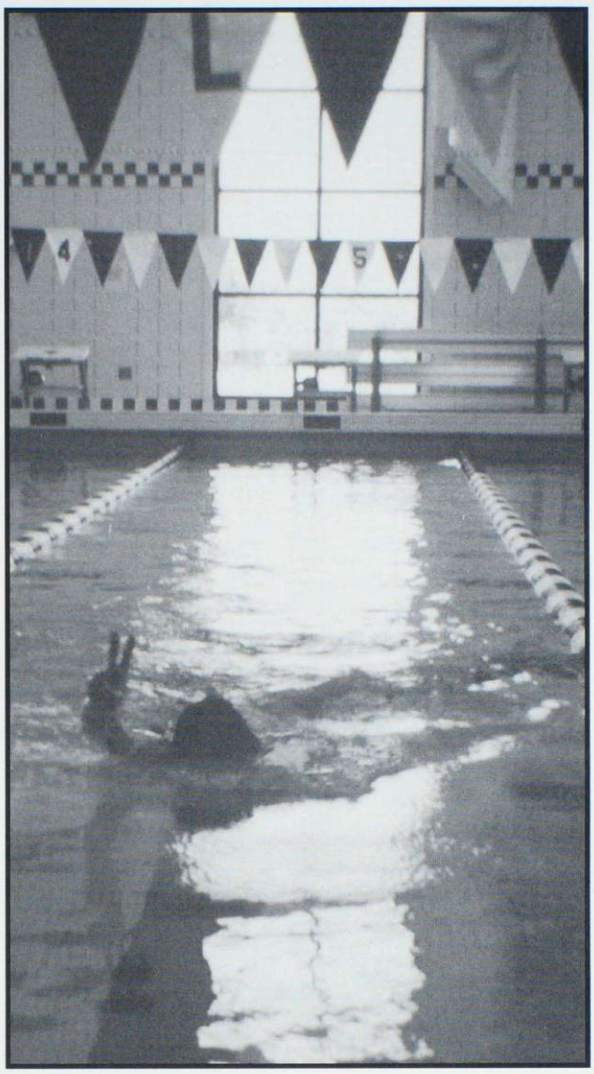
-Cyril Connolly





Triathalon





Have you ever???

Spent longer circling around for a space than it would have taken you to walk there?
Parked in a handicapped space (EVEN with your hazards on)?
Blocked a fire and ambulance lane by parking in front of the chains?
Stopped by McCullough in your car?
Driven to Proctor for lunch?
Taken your car to a social house party?
Driven down to Twilight or the Science Center for class?
Rode to the Fitness Center with a friend?
Driven down to Baba's or Ben & Jerry's for ice cream?
Kept your mouth shut when one of your friends did any of the above?

You are part of the parking problem.
Take your feet,
not your car-keys!

Carol,
You have brains in your head
You have feet in your shoes
You can steer yourself any direction you choose.
You're on your own. And you know what you know
And YOU are the guy who'll decide where to go.
-Dr. Seuss

Congratulations!
Love Mum, Dad, Steph, Sheila and Luce

TO OUR SON

There's a very special place within our hearts reserved only for you.
It's a place where we store treasured memories of your childhood:
the little things you said or did that endeared you to us,
the sound of your laughter, the sight of your tears.
All of this we have saved.
Those years were really precious,
but, they passed too quickly!

Now before us stands our son-- no longer a boy, but a man.
As we look at you, we want you to know that we are filled with pride for your many accomplishments, and for the kind of wonderful person that you have become.

Even though all of this happened too fast,
We are grateful beyond words for the happiness which you have brought us.

We love you deeply, Mark and we thank you for adding so much joy and laughter to our lives.

Love,

Mom & Dad

CONGRATULATIONS

To our son Mark, the adventurous snow shoer, hiker, mountain biker, skier, and whatever else you did and didn't tell us as well as College Scholar

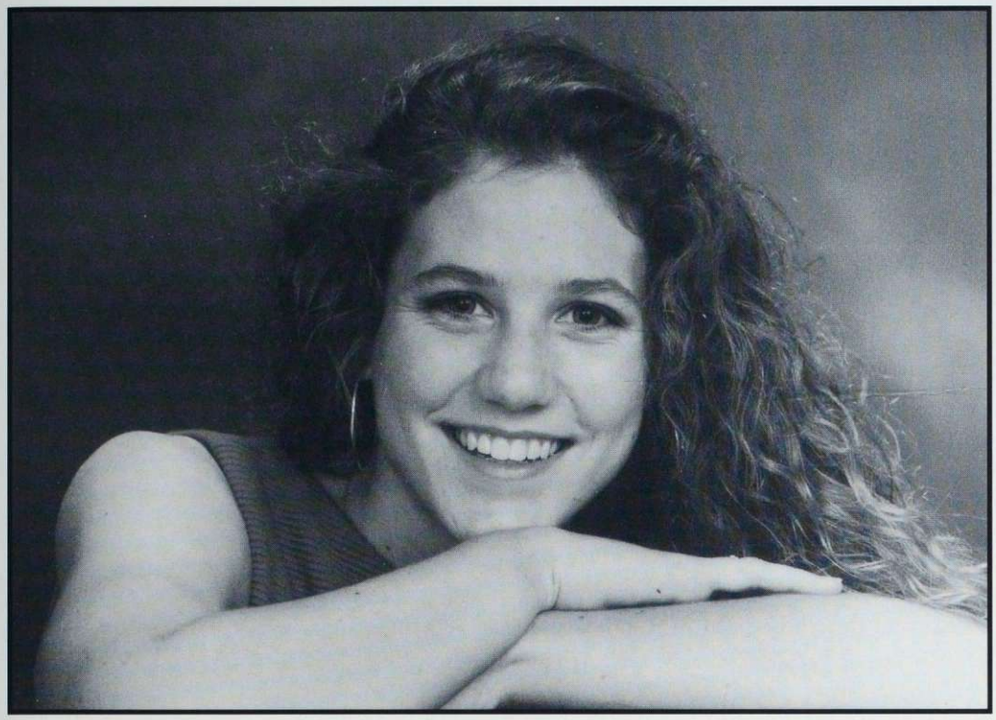
We wish you and your close classmates Ben, Billy, Chris, Dan, Karu, Neal, and Julia the very best life that life can offer.
LOVE,
MOM & DAD



Congratulations Nicola

It is a testimony to your character that we never had a moment of concern while you have been away. You were ready for college and now you are prepared for the next episode in your life. We will always be here to support you whenever you need us.

We love you very much,
Mum, Dad, Chris, Paul
All in Wales, Scotland and Saudi

During the Meiji Era two well-known teachers lived in Tokyo, as unlike each other as it was possible to be. One, Unsho, a Shingon teacher, was a man who meticulously observed every one of Buddha's precepts. He rose well before dawn, retired when the night was young, ate nothing after the sun had passed its zenith, and drank no intoxicating drinks. The other, Tanzan, was a philosophy professor at the Imperial Todai University. He observed no precepts, for he ate when he felt like eating and slept even during the daytime.

One day Unsho visited Tanzan and found him in his cups. This was quite scandalous, since not even a drop is supposed to touch the tongue of a Buddhist.

"Hello, my friend," Tanzan exclaimed. "Will you come in and have a drink with me?"

Unsho was outraged. But he said in a controlled voice, "I never drink."

"One who does not drink is not human, surely," said Tanzan.

This time Unsho lost his temper. "Do you mean to say I am inhuman because I do not touch what the Buddha explicitly forbade? If I am not human, what am I?"

"A Buddha," said Tanzan happily.

Tanzan's manner of dying was as ordinary as was his manner of living. On the last day of his life he wrote sixty postcards, each of which read:

I am departing from this world.
This is my last announcement,
Tanzan.

Ben superiore alle perle è il suo valore.
Apre la bocca con saggezza
E sulla lingua c'è dottrina di bontà.

ma tu le hai superate tutte!>>.
Fallace è la grazia e vana è la bellezza,
ma la donna che temme Dio è da lodare."

What is a person's life but four maybe five good alpacas and a "Midd" education.

You hummm...us proud, Melissa. We celebrate your victory!!!

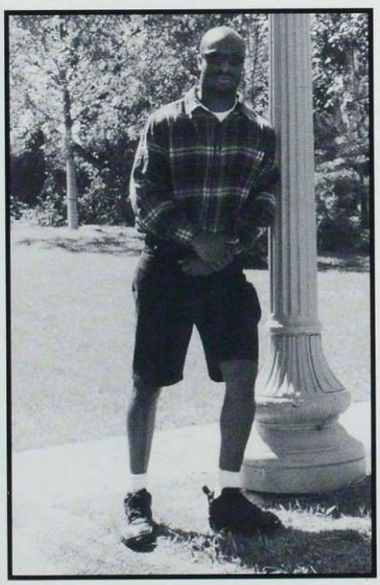
Dear Mark,
If you can talk with crowds and keep your virtue,
Or walk with Kings--nor lose the common touch,
If neither foes nor loving friends can hurt you,
If all men count with you, but none too much;
If you can fill the unforgiving minute
With sixty seconds' worth of distance run,
Yours is the Earth and everything that's in it,
And--which is more--you'll be a Man, my son!
-Rudyard Kipling



Congratulations!

FOR TOPHER

Tomorrow's light, ablaze upon horizon, piercing,
as Eyelids, tender tinder, smolder,
hazing, blurring
Eyes, downcast, yet aching to discern amonst a plethora of paths obscure criss-crossing without end, seducing
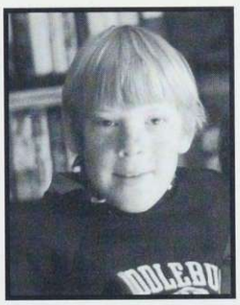
Feet to choose without the clarity of sight.
Trust easily that "other" vision, welling deep within,
until the sun is straight on high,
illuminating ways the Soul already knows.
We love You.
Mom, Dad & Emily



Congratulations to Andy, the boys of Longwell and the Class of 1998!

We are all proud of where you have been and what you have accomplished and we also know you won't ever lose sight of your own "field of dreams". It is, however, equally important in life to enjoy the journey as much as the destination. So wherever life's roads may take you always remember to slow down long enough to let all your senses enjoy the moments. You are a free and loving spirit, may you always remain so....may God bless and keep you in His care.

Love, Mom, Dad & Ca

CONGRATULATIONS to Hilary Decker
from the gang at the Double D Ranch
We are very proud of you.

We stand prepared, fearless,
Armed with the tools of exploration.
Curiousity, intellect, vigor.
We shall not be afraid to dream.
A dream is like a river,
It knows not where it flows.
We must choose to chance the rapids
And dare to dance the tides.

Arms outstreched, like wings,
We reach for tomorrow.
To a future which beckons us
Like a lighthouse.
We are the wayward sailors
Who dare to ride the turbulent currents of life.
Dreams fill our sails and direct us.
Our heart is our compass.
-N. R. Johnson

Nathan,
We are proud of you. Our love and ever-enduring support are with you always.

"Birches"
When I see birches bend to left and right
Across the lines of straighter darker trees,
I like to think some boy's been swinging them.
...He learned all there was to learn about not launching but too soon
And so not carrying the tree away
Clear to the ground. He always kept his poise
To the top branches, climbing carefully
With the same pains you use to fill a cup
Up to the brim, and even above the brim.
Then he flung outward, feet first,
with a swish...
One could do worse than be a swinger of birches.
-Robert Frost

Congratulations Tom!

Cara figlia
Che ci fa ridere
Che ci fa pensare
Non era solo ieri che baciavamo
Il tuo ginocchio ferito perchè
Si risanasse presto?
Com'è che sei tu ora ad asciugare le nostre
lagrime ed a rassicurarci?
Ti abbiamo visto decidere il tuo corso
Ed alzare le tue vele
Ora ti vediamo tirare l'ancora...e salpare
Porterai forza ed intelligenza nel tuo viaggio
Sulla tua scia, non lasci altro che gioia

Special thanks to our Patrons, Mark and Jostens for putting it all together for us and to Jill for getting every department together for a picture--our professors are an important part of Middlebury and because of your hard work they're included in the yearbook. Thanks also, to my friends for listening to me talk about yearbook (and my thesis) a bit more than necessary...
